

Kin Canada

Officers "Code of Ethics"

(03/2010)

The following policy applies to all elected officers and those persons who represent the association as per the National General Operating By-Laws.

- a) To participate in the business of our Association recognizing that we are part of a global community, whose interests vary from district to district.
- b) To conduct oneself in a manner that allows a positive and constructive working relationship between all levels of our Association.
- c) To attend and participate at required meetings. Notice must be given in advance when attendance is not possible.
- d) To present oneself in a professional and positive capacity at all times, recognizing that you are a representative of the Association. Note: It is OK to have a good time, but keep it within limits.
- e) To recognize your responsibility to encourage others to appreciate the Association and to recognize the value of being a member.
- f) To act at all times in the best interests of the Association; and to do nothing to violate the trust of the general membership.